PART II.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE.

CRIMINAL SIDE.

Rule of Practice No. 79, dated 8th September 1908.

Under Section 554 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and with the concurrence of the Government, the Chief Court issues the following rule for regulating the practice of the Criminal Courts in the matter of the writing off of fines:—

The provisions of Section 70 of the Indian Penal Code do not render it compulsory to retain the fine or such portion of it as may remain unrealized, on the register for the full term of six years from the date of the sentence, if all possible means of realizing it have been tried and have failed. Any Sessions Judge and any District Magistrate, and with the written permission of the District Magistrate, any Magistrate subordinate to the District Magistrate, may at any time write off as irrecoverable any amount of which the payment has been ordered in this Court or in the Court of his predecessor in office, if it appears to him that the amount cannot be recovered.
